

New Hampshire Film

Long awaited movie, On Golden Pond, made on Squam Lake in the summer of 1980 will be shown at Cinema I, II and III, starting Feb. 12. James Hughes, manager, is busy hanging posters for an expected long run in the Lakes Region. It is anticipated the film will capture many awards at the Academy Awards presentations in March, which could include best picture, best actor, best actress, best screen play and best cinematography.
